Pocket is a collage and assemblage exhibition inspired by the precious and meaningless objects we carry around with us and the power of a collector to transform one into another. By shrinking the stage for these artworks to play on, the exhibition highlights the diminutive and the different ways small things can define, reveal, shape and connect us.

Lucky Cloud is a mini-gallery space in Pittsburgh, PA. The residence seeks to create intimate spaces for conversation, art and collaboration through a small exhibition layout.

Fred Blauth is a writer and curator. He has contributed to Pittsburgh City Paper, The Rib, Queer Pittsburgh, Table Magazine and The Glassblock. He has worked with Bunker Projects, The Pittsburgh Cultural Trust, The Carnegie Library, PERSAD Center, and Associated Artists of Pittsburgh since graduating from Duquesne University in 2015.
